

Mission

The mission of the Oregon Association of Latino(a) Administrators (OALA) is to promote Latino(a) educators, both current and aspiring, into positions of leadership through mentorship, networking, and professional development. OALA will affect the educational interest of all students in Oregon, particularly those of Latino(a) heritage, in order to ensure their educational success.

The Oregon Association of Latino(a) Administrators is soliciting nominations for the Distinguished Latino(a) Educator Award and for the Tom Ruhl OALA Ally Award.

The DLEA award will be given to a Latino(a) educator who has exhibited leadership in educational administration and has implemented strategies or activities aligned with OALA's mission, purpose and goals in their district or institution.

There will be two Ally of OALA awards to be presented to Latinos(as) or non-Latinos(as) who have exhibited leadership in the areas of equity and cultural competence. These leaders will have implemented strategies or activities aligned with OALA's mission, purpose and goals in their district or institution.

Individuals may not nominate themselves.

All nominees must meet the following requirements:

Educators who have demonstrated leadership by:

- Mentoring Latinos(as) into education and administration.
- Serving as a role model for aspiring administrators.
- Serving the Latino(a) community through active involvement in addressing critical Latino(a) issues.
- Modeling cultural competency and a focus on equity.

Nomination Process

Individuals seeking to present a nominee for the 2018 OALA Distinguished Latino(a) Educator Award or the Tom Ruhl OALA Ally Award should submit the nomination form along with a nomination statement of not more than two typewritten pages including the name and position of the nominee and how their leadership demonstrates the selection criteria for the award.

1. Nomination statements should be emailed to the following email address and can either be scanned and emailed as an attachment, or can be sent in the body of an email/ Word/Google document:

aguilarl@hsd.k12.or.us

2. Nomination letters must arrive no later than Friday, January 5th, 2018.

Award Presentations

The 2018 OALA Distinguished Latino(a) Educator Award and the Tom Ruhl OALA Ally Awards will be presented during a general session at the annual OALA Winter Conference on February 3, 2018 at NIKE, Tiger Woods Conference Center.
