19. For the purpose of facilitating community interaction, residence within the District boundaries is strongly preferred.

2. Bilingual skills in languages appropriate to the district's demographics.

Major Duties and Responsibilities:

The assistant principal supports and shares fully with the principal in:

3. Student Learning and Achievement: Supporting, communicating, and implementing a shared vision for all students to achieve or exceed standards. Implementing action plans and budget plans that are aligned with the Strategic Plan and school improvement plan and that maintain focus on the vision, goals and priorities for student, school and community success. Assisting in preparing reports on specific goals and actions designed to advance student achievement.

2. Use of Data: Providing leadership to teachers in the development and utilization of multiple assessment tools and strategies to support the achievement of the performance standards by every student. Implementing the school's performance measurement system (e.g., Dashboard) to provide indicators that measure the school's success in meeting the expectations of students. Participating in developing action plans for gaps and shortfalls in performance.

3. Curriculum, Instruction, and Assessment:

4. Supporting the development and implementation of the District and school framework for curriculum, instruction and assessment that is research-based and aligned to standards. Ensuring that the approved curriculum is being effectively delivered in assigned classrooms.

2. Providing leadership to teachers in the development of classroom-based assessments of student learning and the use of assessments to inform instruction and improve learning. Regularly adjusting goals and action plans for gaps and shortfalls in performance.
3. Implementing curriculum, instruction, and assessment framework evaluation tools so that annual progress is measured and effectively communicated to stakeholder groups.

5. Leadership and Governance:

4. Leading by example with a level of professional conduct that is above reproach. Consistently demonstrating high moral, ethical, and professional standards of performance and personal integrity, which includes addressing problems and issues in an open, honest, and timely manner. Ensuring proper conduct goes beyond the practice of avoiding what is wrong and instead focusing on choosing to do what is right.

2. Creating a professional environment by ensuring that personal and staff interactions with others in the school, community, and Board are conducted with utmost respect and professionalism. Honoring the ideas of others even when in disagreement with those ideas. Working collaboratively to resolve disagreements and seek mutually respectful solutions.
3. Actively participating in meetings, workshops and conferences that involve decisions affecting the district and/or the school. Advocating for the school's needs by providing input to the decision making process of the district. Respecting, supporting, and implementing decisions once made, and taking action to ensure that staff are equally supportive.

4. Advocating and supporting the academic and social emotional learning of each student regardless of their race, gender, socio-economic background, sexual orientation, or physical ability.
 5. Participating in school academic, athletic, and co-curricular activities to supervise and advocate for the school.
 6. Demonstrating a leadership commitment to, and requiring all staff members to embrace and support, statutes, laws, school and Board policies, collective bargaining agreements, as well as the values of the school and the district.
 7. Providing leadership in creating and leveraging community partnerships to improve the school, enhance its resources, and improve student achievement.
6. Communications and Information Sharing:
8. Actively contributing to and possibly leading faculty and staff meetings that allow for timely sharing and dissemination of information as well as meaningful input to and discussion of needs and actions for effective delivery of the educational program and operation of the school.
 2. Maintaining effective communications with the principal and, as appropriate, district staff and keeping them informed of school progress; advocating for the needs of the school; and ensuring timely and substantive notification of issues and concerns that could have a significant impact on achieving the vision and goals.
 3. Contributing to a school-community information program that creates support and enthusiasm for the school and District vision and mission, and keeps parents and community members informed of the school's challenges, accomplishments and involved in school activities.

4. Modeling and promoting trust, enthusiasm, rapport, respect and openness among faculty, staff, students, and members of the community. Celebrating successes and recognizing the achievements of others.

7. Human Resource Management:

5. Developing the competencies required for each assigned subordinate staff member in order to fully meet job expectations and contribute effectively to achievement of the vision. Screening and recommending selection of staff members consistent with job and qualification requirements, Board policies, legal requirements, and provisions of the collective bargaining agreement(s).

2. Assisting in the induction of staff members ensuring that new members understand the vision and goals of the school, duties and responsibilities of the position, performance requirements and expectations, school and corporate policies and procedures, and available support and assistance.

3. Assisting in the professional development of staff members based on personal, professional, and organizational needs. Collaborating with staff members on identification of needs, opportunities, resources, and methods of providing professional development. Monitoring and assessing the results of professional development to ensure the desired outcome.

4. Fostering self-reflection of each staff member and administrator for which assigned supervisory and evaluation responsibility.
