Pendleton School District has distinct advantages not always found in districts of a similar size. Its students score well on state achievement tests. Students who plan to attend college score well above state and national scores on the Scholastic Aptitude Test. The district is staffed with many dedicated long-term employees. Pendleton schools have outstanding programs with instruction in band, choir, and orchestra at the middle and senior high schools; robust sports programs with a reputation for winning, attributed in large part to the tremendous support of the community; and many school-related clubs, organizations, and extracurricular activities giving students the opportunity to be involved in their schools and community. For more information, visit the district's website: www.pendleton.k12.or.us.

Best known for its legendary Pendleton Roundup rodeo, fine woolens, and leather craftsmanship, Pendleton has a reputation as a town where the best of western tradition and heritage lives on. Located in the foothills of the Blue Mountains in northeastern Oregon, Pendleton is almost equal distance to Portland, OR, Spokane, WA, Boise, ID, and Seattle, WA. Recreational opportunities include open roads for motorcyclists and bicyclists, birding, game bird hunting, swimming, golfing, fishing, hiking, mountain biking, four-wheeling, and snow sports.
